

Seller Guide: MindGenius Online for Microsoft Teams

Empower hybrid workers with collaborative mind-mapping apps in Teams

The image displays a Microsoft Teams interface during a meeting. The main screen shows a MindGenius Online mind map titled "2 MindGenius Online Roadmap". The mind map has a central node "2 MindGenius Online Roadmap" with several branches: "Customer Feedback", "Support Desk", "Change Implementor", "Competitor Insights", "Employees", "Product Owners", and "Surveys". A callout box for "Customer Feedback" contains the text: "Format of @chat message in email incorrect". Another callout box for "Support Desk" contains the text: "In setting project tags in Summary, provide a dropdown of existing tags with the option to add a new one. Currently too easy to duplicate or format differently." The bottom of the screen shows a video call with five participants. The right sidebar displays a chat window with messages from participants.

- Improve communication within remote workers as 88% struggle with miscommunication or inconsistent practice

"We are using MindGenius Online to allow collaboration on a £850,000, two-year artificial intelligence project involving NHS, University's and industry partners located across the UK. MindGenius Online's ability to switch views between mind map, taskboard and GANTT timeline has impressed many of the partners involved and has clearly won over new admirers used to more expensive solutions with less functionality."
